A Thanksgiving Prayer

O Lord, we thank you for our families and their faithful love for us.

We thank you for the liberty and freedom that we enjoy in our nation.

We thank you for the beauty of the earth and for the joy of human love.

We thank you for our work and for our rest. We thank you for our homes and for one another.

We thank you for your divine grace which takes away our sins and helps us to be more loving.

Amen

Preparing for Advent: the Season of Hope

A special Thank You to those who participated in the spiritual program that was offered in the Holy Cross Center last Sunday. Thank You for actively participating in the singing, faith sharing, prayers and responding to the talks given by Father Rossi. We were very pleased that such a large number (46) attended and we are planning to have Father Rossi help us with a similar program in the new year. The topic will be Preparing for Lent.
