Colossians 4:2 says: Devote Yourselves to Prayer.

When we were children, we were told that prayer means talking to God and listening to God's messages for us. And that definition of prayer leads us to this question: "Where can we go to be with God for a prayerful conversation?" Jesus went to the garden, the mountaintop, the desert, the kitchen table, the synagogue and the Temple. (Today's Gospel says that He was praying in an out-of-the-way place.) He discovered that those places are filled with the Holy Spirit. They are filled with God's life. His intimate conversations with God in those places gave him the strength he needed for his mission.

Are there places in your home, in your church and in your neighborhood where you can go to talk to God? After you name those places, please use them as Jesus would: for heart to heart conversations with God.

Fr. Jerry Schik, o.s.c.
