Do you like surprises?

Much of the excitement around a birthday or Christmas celebration comes from the surprise gifts that we receive. If you like surprises you will find a treasure chest in the Gospel of Luke. He continues a tradition which we find in several books of the Hebrew Scriptures. For example, in Deuteronomy 7:7 we read that God created quite a stir by selecting "the smallest of all nations" to be His Chosen People. Luke's Gospel contains an abundance of passages which remind us that God's ways are not our ways and that God is frequently catching people by surprise.

Here is a short list of some of the surprises that are found in his Gospel. 1. Elizabeth is elderly but she conceives and bears a son and he becomes the forerunner of the Messiah. 2. Mary is a virgin and she conceives and bears a son and he is the Messiah. 3. God's messengers (the angels) bring the Good News of the Messiah's birth to the lowly shepherds and not to the leaders of the nation. 4. God is throwing down the rulers from their thrones and lifting up the lowly. 5. God rejects the prayer of the Pharisee, the professional leader of prayer, and accepts the prayer of the sinner, the humble tax collector. 6. The Samaritans are despised by the Jewish leaders but they come across as heroes in the Parable of the Good Samaritan and in the cure of the ten lepers.

Luke has a plethora of surprise stories in his gospel. It is readily evident that he wants to emphasize how God's action in our world is not in line with what people expect. I have given you only a short list of his surprise stories and I encourage you to pore over the pages of his gospel and find the rest.

Fr. Jerry Schik, O.S.C.

The Solemnity of the Assumption - The Assumption of the Blessed Mother (August 15th) is classified as a Solemnity in the Catholic Church. In most years it is a Holy Day of Obligation. However, in the dioceses of the United States, whenever August 15th falls on a Saturday or Monday, the obligation to attend Mass is dispensed. Thus, Catholics are not obliged to attend Mass on August 15 this year. If you wish to attend Mass on the Holy Day, we will have a Mass at 9:00 A.M. on Monday, August 15th, at Holy Cross Church in Onamia.

Mille Lacs Health System Auxiliary - The Mille Lacs Health System Auxiliary welcomes all who wish to join us. Meetings are the first Tuesday of each month at 3 p.m. at Holy Cross Center in Onamia. Please call 320-277-6101 for more information.
