Memorial Day: A Time to Remember Their Love

During this holiday weekend we pay a visit to our cemeteries. Why do we visit the gravesites of our families and friends? Because our relationships with these special people has not ended. When we stand (or kneel) at their gravesites we remember how they loved us and we remember the ways in which we loved them. Scripture says that love cannot be extinguished as we read in The Song of Songs, 8:7: "Mighty waters cannot extinguish love; nor floods sweep love away."

And then we stop at each grave that is marked by a small American flag that has been placed by the American Legion and the VFW. Again, it's all about love! We honor those who showed their love for their country by serving in one of the military services. We most especially honor those who died in the performance of their military duties. On Memorial Day we remember them for having a deep love for their country. Daniel Webster said, "May their remembrance be as lasting as the land they honored."

Parish News

A Glorious Celebration – Our Parish Centennial Celebration last Sunday was a day of sharing memories and sharing a joyful spirit. This glorious celebration was made possible by four years of long term planning and the completion of many last minute tasks. I wish to thank those who created the centennial quilt, sent out the invitations, created the parish history, published the parish directory, provided and displayed items of memorabilia, published the parish recipe book, sang in the choir, decorated the dining hall and planned and prepared the meal. I especially want to thank the Sacred Heart of Wahkon parishioners who served the meal and cleaned up afterwards. I most especially want to thank Bishop Kettler for presiding for our Centennial Mass and reminding us that each person is sacred and is a “Pearl of Great Price.”

Sincerely, Fr. Jerry
